

Lyn Rousay Music Studio Policies

1. Practicing is not optional:

Please set aside a designated time each day for practicing. I will be discussing the length of practice time with each student individually, according to the level that they are currently in.

Check practice folders weekly to be sure your child is practicing and completing their weekly assignments.

I am attaching a commitment paper for each parent and student to sign, to acknowledge that they understand practicing is part of our lesson agreement.

2. Be prepared for the lesson:

Weekly goals and expectations will be given at the end of each lesson. I will offer a mix of classical, contemporary, worship, jazz and ragtime music to every student. We will also be learning music history and theory on a weekly basis. Please bring all books to every lesson! Homework assignments are expected to be completed by assigned due dates.

3. Missed Lessons :

Rescheduled lessons are designed for emergency situations only (sickness, family emergencies). Please be sure that your time slot is convenient with your other schedules. Make-up lessons will be given at my discretion.

4. Recitals:

We will enjoy 2 recitals each year!

Christmas/Holiday Recital

Spring Recital

5. Lesson Payments:

Lesson payments are due at the beginning of each month for that month. I will observe Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Spring Break according to the school calendar. If there are any other school holidays that fall on your lesson date, please PLAN to attend your lesson!
